Sunday Jan. 25th was Miss Kathy Hines last working day at the Bar Hill Health Centre. She has been there for 6½ years as the community nursing sister during which time she has attended to our many health needs and requirements. She has always combined a professional attitude to her work with one of humanity and understanding.

This month Kathy will start work at the J. Arthur Rank continuing care unit as a nursing sister and I'm sure all of you will, along with me, wish her every success and happiness in her new career and offer her our very grateful thanks for all she has done for the people of Bar Hill over the years.

PARISH COUNCIL NOTES

The monthly meeting of the Parish Council was held on Tuesday 20th January in the Village Hall.

Parish boundaries

We have been advised by the District Council that their recommendations concerning the review of the parish boundary have been accepted by the Boundaries Commission and as a result the boundary has been re-drawn to include Fairway site 2 and that part of phase 9 formerly outside the village within Bar Hill.

Village maintenance

The Parish Council is most concerned over the poor state of the Village Hall car park, and another attempt will be made to drain it satisfactorily. Drainage stone has already been purchased and when the necessary equipment becomes available the work will be put in hand. As soon as the weather improves the Works Department staff will be starting landscaping work in Hollytrees and it is hoped to complete this in time for the Spring. Residents may have noticed the new signs to the Village Hall, which have been constructed by Mr Binge and his assistant. Further information signs will be made and erected as and when necessary.

Village Hall footpath

The Clerk has recently been in contact with New Ideal Homes Ltd. concerning the temporary path to the Village Hall, which had not been properly completed. Mr Burton has given a personal assurance that this will be done forthwith.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday 17th February at 7.30 pm in the Committee Room, Bar Hill Village Hall.

BAR HILL CHURCH

BAR HILL PRE-SCHOOL PLAYGROUP

February 1981! The initial interest in the new year is already fading. Intentions to meet new people, start new activities and visit new places are frequently forgotten. Resolutions, now one month old, are rarely remembered. Why not make a late resolution now to do all three and join one of the many organisations or activities in the village? After the first few visits it is inevitable that you will become involved more deeply and participate more fully.

As Bar Hill Pre-School Playgroup is run by parents through a Committee every Play Group family is responsible for the Group and is expected to contribute in some way, either actively or by suggesting ideas. One way in which parents do help is by becoming volunteer helpers, freely giving time each week to assist the Supervisors. Were it not for these volunteers the number of children in each Play Group session would legally need to be greatly reduced, so parents are helping themselves. Families cannot always make alternative arrangements for their younger children during these "helping times" and it is often necessary for the toddler to accompany the mother. A visitor might be surprised at the age range of the group but children do not start until they are three years old! Though most toddlers settle well the extra children do add to the numbers and a Mother's help could be reduced with the Playgroup children who must of course take priority. For this reason only one accompanying toddler can be accepted per session. Obviously for the toddler this accompanying visit is in no way a substitute for informal play with a home group or Mother and Toddler group.

As winter breaks into spring and the spring bulbs come into flower tell the children to keep their eyes open for the first crocus, daffodil, leaf bud opening or the sound of the cuckoo. Each year the seasons vary depending on the weather and there can be great differences from year to year. Keep a nature diary with the older children and make a note of these "first sightings", then put the diary in a safe place and compare the dates next year.

It is a little too early to think of outdoor gardening but there are a number of plantings that you can make at any time of the year. Mustard and cress seeds are probably the most common of these and can be grown on lint in a small plastic tray. Various seeds which germinate quickly and can be eaten within a week or so are available. Alfalfa, which produces fresh green shoots for salads, can be grown in a glass jar in normal room temperature, whereas Mung Beans grown in lint or wet tissues like Mustard and Cress grow into crispy and tasty seedlings, like those used in Chinese recipes. Put some peas, broad bean or runner bean seeds in a jam jar lined with blotting paper and keep the paper moist. Soon the seeds will begin to germinate and children enjoy watching the young root bursting from the seed and the shoot growing upwards unfurling the first leaves as it grows.

Occasionally parents are met by a delicious smell of baking from the village hall when collecting their children and are proudly presented with well-rolled pastry or lovingly mixed buns. All children love cooking, whether it is simply shaping ready-made pastry into snakes and balls and treating it rather like plasticene or actually putting the ingredients together one by one and making something edible, cooking rates highly as an enjoyable occupation.

Three year olds can start mixing and baking under supervision, but the ingredients need not be complicated or expensive, just flour and water to begin with. Soon children can try real cooking and it is worth using the right proportions so that something eatable can be made. Cut down quantities for a sponge cake mixture to 2oz. margarine, 2oz. sugar, 1 egg and 2oz. flour to make small buns to be iced and eaten later. A plastic mixing bowl is the safest kind to use and put a damp cloth underneath so that it won't slip. Crumble toppings for puddings can also be made quite successfully by three and four year olds. 4oz. flour and 2oz. soft margarine rubbed together with sugar added complement most stewed fruits. Use the same mixture but add a pinch of salt instead of sugar and you have the basic for dumplings. It is best to add the water to these yourself!

Shrove Tuesday will be celebrated on March 3rd. and for tradition sake, many people will be making pancakes on this day. Let the family help on pancake day and you can have a lot of fun tossing the pancakes and trying to catch them. The simple recipe of 4oz plain flour, 1 egg, a pinch of salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of milk is enough for about six pancakes. Serve with sugar and lemon juice or some children may prefer jam. Good cooking!

On Tuesday March 17th. the Play group is hosting a book evening and buffet in the village hall at 8.00pm. Books will be on sale. Guest speakers will be Mrs. Val Barker (Chairman, Cambridge Branch of the Pre-School Play groups Association), Mrs. Chris Mulvey (Chairman, Cambridge Branch of the National Association for the Welfare of Children in Hospital) and Mrs. Joan Rutherford on Children's Books. Followed by a cheese and wine supper. Tickets 50p. at the door. Many Supervisors of Play groups in our area will be attending and all interested villagers are welcome.

We look forward to seeing you at any of our activities.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir,

I would ask that members of the Bar Hill Community be on the look out for a Greyhound or Whippet whose owner has let it roam the area without a leash or muzzle.

This animal has severely attacked our pet cat, causing much suffering not only to the cat but also to the family to whom it belongs.

Should this animal attack one of your pets, please notify the Cambridge Police immediately.

Yours faithfully,

ARE YOU FED UP WITH THE KIDS?

Would you like to go back to work and earn some money?
If so, why not give us some work.

We are local authority registered childminders and we belong to the Bar Hill and District Childminders Association. I must stress though, we are all individuals with our own personalities, routines and family commitments.

At present, several childminders have vacancies ranging from just one session a week (i.e. 2-3 hours) to all day, every day.

If you are interested, then why not give me a ring. I can then give you the names of the minders, for you to arrange for yourself. Alternatively, everyone's name is on the list in the Health Centre.

1st. BAR HILL AQUARIUS PACK CUB SCOUTS

Our thanks to all the cubs who came to sing carols before Christmas. We collected £20.46p which we forwarded to the NSPCC Well done boys. Our thanks also to Mrs. Cooper who came along to help out and to Forbes for the use of his kitchen for our chocolate and biscuits afterwards.

We attended a matinee performance of the pantomime "Jack and the Beanstalk" during the holidays which the mums and dads seemed to enjoy as much as the boys. Our thanks to all who supported this venture.

Lastly, best wishes from myself and Baloo to the boys who have now left the pack and have gone up to the troop - we wish them well.

BAR HILL CUB AND SCOUT GROUP

The Bar Hill Scout Group is in need of more help. As a result of the impending resignation of Kevin Reed-Jones, as Group Scout Leader, we need a replacement.

The two cub packs are full, with waiting lists, and the Scout Troop goes from strength to strength, but Dave Hart needs more help than just Forbes Grant can give him. The Committee are seriously considering the formation of another pack, but we need another leader - Coral Paulson, Pat Jones, Mary Pedersen and Gerry Craske have no more spare time.

If any of you is a past scouter or leader, or is interested in filling one of the above posts, please contact any Cub or Scout leader, or myself.

BAR HILL TOY LIBRARY

Thanks to a very generous gift of several toys from Fisher-Price, and several donations from various bodies (notably the Residents Association!) we hope to open the Toy Library within the next six to eight weeks. We are also very grateful to Miss Collins for agreeing to allow us to use the Health Centre for our meetings on alternate Friday afternoons, and for her help and support for the scheme.

In order to raise funds and promote interest in the Toy Library, we shall be holding an Open Day at the Church Centre on Friday 27th February from 2.30 until 4.00 p.m. Some of the toys we have received will be on display, together with photographs and information on the way in which the Toy Library will be run. Tea, coffee and cakes and biscuits will be on sale, and we shall be holding a raffle. So don't complain that there's nothing to do during half-term week - come and find out about the Toy Library!

We could still do with more people willing to help in the setting up of the Toy Library, so if you are interested please come to our next committee meeting on Monday 16th February at 8.30 p.m. at Pauline Kember's, 33 Oatlands Avenue, or give me a ring.
